

NIS Platform
Working Group 2
Information Exchange

Plenary Meeting – 11th December 2013

Agenda

- Background
- Structure
- Next Steps

Background

- Initial Plenary meeting – Brussels
 - Establishment of Working Groups
 - Invitation to join Working Groups
- Appointment of Co-Chairs for WG2
 - Creation of Terms of Reference
 - Opening of ENISA Portal on NIS
- First meeting of Working Group 2 - Brussels
 - 26th September 2013
 - Review of Terms of Reference with WG2 members
 - Themes, objectives and general direction agreed

Structure & Preparatory Work

- Refine terms of reference based on WG2 members comments
- Agreement that WG2 will produce guidance on best and good practices on Information Sharing and Incident Handling
- Creation of structure and content framework for final document
 - Used to help delegate and involve further members of WG2 later in the process
- Meetings held with key and influential stakeholders in governments
 - Dutch, Belgian, UK, Irish, Portuguese departments responsible for cyber security, business development and incident notification
- Meetings help with industry bodies with legal or regulatory interest in cyber security and incident notification

Objective – gain support for access to current practices and begin conversation on construction of agreed content that would satisfy key stakeholders and interested bodies

Direction Statement

- Working Group 2 will produce a paper on current observed practices on Information Sharing and Incident Notification within the EU and Internationally. The purpose of this is to learn and capture best and good practices in order to assist in developing a set of recommendations for EU business's.
- Working Group 2 will also prepare guidance on how to share information and notification of incidents. This will be the practical mechanics of sharing and notification.

Next Steps

- Creation of Sub Groups in WG2
 - Existing Platforms – Section 2
 - National Platforms
 - International Information Sharing Initiatives
 - Industry Verticals
 - Information Sharing – Section 3
 - Guidance on Privacy and Trust on Information Sharing
 - Sharing of Information
 - Protocols and Mechanisms
 - Standards and proposed standards in industry
 - What is industry using
- Services and Initiatives research
- Final Recommendations

Timelines

- Request sent to identified members of WG2 for Sub Group
- Sub group meetings in January
- Sub group content for review by end of March
- Consolidated drafts by end of April
- Completed total draft by end of May
 - Services and Initiatives
 - Final proposal for guidance